

The Medieval Centre of Sighișoara

*On a winter evening, which happened to be the 20th of December,
I decided to climb the stairs and to step through the door of another era.
Look what I had experienced before making heritage fun with a #...*

A  project, developed by Andrea Csula-Albert

Come with me for a journey to the Saxon past in the city of Schäßburg

Where the journey began...

Castle built in 1280

XVI. Century: masters and their crafts

The stone wall: 930 m long and 4 m in height- in 200 years those 4 meters reached 15

14 whatchtowers: the Clock Tower, the Tanner's, the Tailor's, the Smith's, the Furrier's, the Boot-maker's, the Butcher's, the Rope-maker's, and the Tin Tower (these still exist). The Barber's, the Fitter's, the Weaver's and the Cooper's Tower don't exist today.

Most visited: the Clock Tower- clock and pharma museum, great panorama on top Road to the medieval world. 20.12.2015.

You can get lost anywhere with anyone

Narrow streets, romantic corners,
tenements from the medieval era

Check out while wandering: Cloister Monastery, Venetian House, House with Stage, Synagogue, the Park with the statue of the Hungarian poet
Petőfi Sándor

You might stop by the City Hall next to the Cloister Church, and you can also catch an art exhibition

Walking on cobblestones: Clock Tower from distance. 20.12.2015.

You don't have to find your way back: Stay!

Climb the Student Stares to the Hilly Church

The Europa Nostra awarded evangelic church has remarkable paintings and a crypt

The Evangelic Gymnasium is still in use

Stay and admire the surroundings, the people, and come back for the Medieval Festival in July, or the Proetnica Festival in August

The Main Square in winter lights. 20.12.2015.

Before you get to the exit gates...

Remember that a Vampire might be chasing you

Here lays Vlad Țepeș' (aka Dracula's) birthplace, where he lived with his family between 1431-1436

These are only assumptions, but the legends are reborn every Halloween in this magical place

Dracula is whatching. 20.12.2015.

Some mementos from one of my earlier journeys (2013)

The evangelic church and gymnasium from distance, City Hall in the background. Sight from the Clock Tower: street in the old centre.
Tin Tower and Tanner's Tower on halfway.
